PARENTS

Is your teen in Wānaka this summer?

Before the summer season starts, make a plan you can both 'stick' with.

The freedom of summer doesn't mean a free-for-all.

Parenting Through the Party Scene

(Be Clear

Set Boundaries - Keep Calm - Stay Available

(V) Be Connected

Join forces with other parents. Set up a WhatsApp group. Know who's hosting and what's going on.

(Be Consented

By law parents must give express consent to hosts supplying alcohol to your U18 teen!

(Be Courageous

Make a Plan - Stick With it! Have the tough conversations - Be consistent.

(Be Courteous

Remember locals live here too. Wānaka is a community - not a festival!

HOSTS

Know the Alcohol Supply Law

It's illegal to supply under 18s unless you:

- are their parent/guardian
- as the person supplying alcohol have the express consent from parents /guardians, and you responsibly supply the alcohol.

How to keep your cool this summer

(v) Connect

Plan ahead - Phones charged - Buddy-up - Backup's ready - Ride Safe!

(Courage

'5 seconds of courage' to stop and think... 'You know, we don't stand for that!'

(Choices

Trust your instincts Hydrate - Know your limits Make curfews count Mistakes are OK, but be accountable.

(Contribute

Bring food - lend a hand - say thanks. Be someone your host will invite back!

(v) Consent

'Add to the party, don't close the party down.' Get express consent.

Wānaka's a beautiful place, and we care about our people and environment. We want everyone to have a safe time, to be able to look after one another and make safe decisions for themselves. We care about you and your future.
